

Notice of Publicly Available Federal Disclosures about Olivet College

The Federal Government requires that U.S. colleges and universities make available to employees and current and prospective students important information about the college. It is your right to know financial, financial aid, graduation rate, security, and general information about the College. Information is current but is updated or corrected during the year.

This notice lists the information available and contains instructions on how to retrieve it, as per requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008.

Information	Nature of Information
College Information	Accreditation, tuition, fees, refund and withdrawal policies, financial aid procedures and policies, graduation requirements and academic programs and degrees; Also various policies affecting students, including procedures for handling harassment, academic dishonesty, and grade appeals.
Annual Security Report	Safety procedures and policies and last three years security statistics. This includes the Fire Safety and Drug Free Reports
Graduation and Retention Rates	Graduation and 1 st -Year retention broken down by race and gender
Athletics	Athletic information including intercollegiate teams, revenues and expenditures, and personnel
Education Report Card	Teacher preparation statistics for the College as reported to the Michigan Department of Education
Student Outcomes	Various measures, including employment and graduate studies

All information is available to the public via the Olivet College web site https://my.olivetcollege.edu/ICS/Institutional Research/For the Public \(page 2\).jnz.jnz) (Follow the MyOlivet link on the home page, then click the Institutional Research tab, and then click For the Public (page2) on the left sidebar). The Academic Catalog, which contains general information and policies and procedures for handling academic dishonesty and grade appeals, can also be reached from the College's web site by clicking Academic Departments and scrolling down to Academic Catalog. Information about campus life and policies and procedures for handling incidents of harassment can be reached from the College's web site by clicking MyOlivet at the top, clicking the Student Life tab, and clicking the most recent Student Handbook on the right sidebar.

Assistance in obtaining copies of information: Assistance with student financial aid – including necessary forms - is available from Financial Aid personnel, in the Student Services Complex, Mott 205. Copies of the Annual Security Report and Fire Safety Report are available from the Office of Student Life, Mott 210. Assistance retrieving all other information is available in the Office of Academic Affairs, Mott 206.

Mary Anne McMullen

Executive Assistant to the Provost
mmcmullen@olivetcollege.edu
269-749-7131

October 6, 2016 CG/mm